

CASCO BAY LINES ENEWSLETTER

March 2025

Hello Caitlin,

As we welcome spring, we're looking forward to longer days and warmer weather on Casco Bay. With the new season ahead, we want to thank everyone who traveled with us throughout winter!

This month, we're excited to introduce Noah, our new crew member, and share an update on The Machigonne II's return to service. Read on for the latest updates. Thank you!

The Machigonne II Returning to Service

The Machigonne II has been at the shipyard for a routine dry dock and Coast Guard hull inspection. Work is nearing completion, and we anticipate Machigonne II will return to service within the next week or two. Stay up to date with our text alerts for timely updates on schedule changes or service adjustments.

We look forward to welcoming The Machigonne II back into service soon! Click here to visit our website for details.

Meet the Crew: Noah Van Heukelom, Assistant Port Engineer

You may have noticed a new face on the docks in Portland! Noah Van Heukelom joined our maintenance team in February as Assistant Port Engineer, bringing a wealth of maritime experience to Casco Bay Lines.

A Massachusetts Maritime Academy graduate, Noah has spent the past decade working on a diverse range of vessels—from research ships in the Arctic to the Merchant Marine Fleet in the Indian Ocean.

Please join us in welcoming Noah to Casco Bay Lines! Click here to learn more about Noah in our
